Course Overview

Business transactions are becoming more complex. Accounting professionals need to be constantly aware of the impact of those transactions on the entity's financial statements and adequately account for such transactions.

The 'Certificate in International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS)' course is the second level of the IFRS and Updates course. We will discuss more advanced topics in IFRS related to investment accounting, financial instruments, business combinations, and consolidation.

Course Objectives

By the end of the course, participants will be able to:

- Identify and explain the components of Comprehensive Income and Other Comprehensive Income (OCI).
- Accurately account for Income Taxes, distinguishing between Current Taxes and Deferred Taxes.
- Classify and measure the different types of Investments in accordance with IFRS 9.
- Determine the concepts of Control and Power, and prepare Consolidated Financial Statements.
- Define the concept of Significant Influence and correctly apply the Equity Method of accounting.
- Apply the essential steps in a Business Combination and account for Goodwill in line with IFRS requirements.
